

Table 13. Observed and expected wildlife species at Laurel Lake.

Expected wildlife species are based upon the NEWild program (Thomasma et. al, 1999).

Observed wildlife species (indicated by asterisk) reported by ESS personnel during 2002 field season.

Common Name
Belted kingfisher*
Canada goose*
Green heron*
Gull*
Mallards*
American black duck
American coot
American widgeon
Bald eagle (Endangered - MA Status)
Beaver
Belted kingfisher
Big brown bat
Black bear
Black tern
Blanding's turtle (Threatened - MA Status)
Bufflehead
Bullfrog
Canvasback
Common goldeneye
Common grackle
Common loon (Special Concern - MA Status)
Common merganser
Common moorhen (Special Concern - MA Status)
Common raven
Common snapping turtle
Eastern American toad
Eastern painted turtle
Eastern pipistrelle
Eastern ribbon snake
Eastern spiny softshell
Fish crow
Fowler's toad
Gadwall
Glossy ibis
Gray treefrog
Great blue heron

Table 13 (continued). Observed and expected wildlife species at Laurel Lake.

Expected wildlife species are based upon the NEWild program (Thomasma et. al, 1999).

Observed wildlife species (indicated by asterisk) reported by ESS personnel during 2002 field season.

Common Name
Green frog
Green-backed heron
Herring gull
Hoary bat
Hooded merganser
Indiana myotis
Keen's myotis
Least bittern
Little brown myotis
Mallards
Map turtle
Midland painted turtle
Mink
Mink frog
Moose
Mudpuppy
Muskrat
Mute swan
Northern leopard frog
Northern ribbon snake
Northern water snake
Northing spring peeper
Osprey
Pickerel frog
Plymouth redbelly turtle
Purple martin
Red bat
Red-breasted merganser
Red-eared slider
Red-spotted newt
Ring-billed gull
Ring-necked duck
River otter
Silver-haired bat
Spotted sandpiper
Star-nosed mole
Stinkpot
Tree swallow
Water shrew (Special Concern - MA Status)
Wood duck
Wood turtle (Special Concern - MA Status)